

About Us

Swami Vivekananda Cultural Centre, Bali (formerly Indian Cultural Centre, Bali), Indonesia, is a part of the Indian Council for Cultural Relations of India, an autonomous organization working under Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India.

On 26th October 2005 this Centre was opened in Bali. Our Centre promotes actively bilateral cultural linkages between India and Indonesia through outreach activities, celebrating festivals, workshops and various allied activities under India based professional Teachers.

We offer Classical Dance, Yoga, Hindi and Sanskrit classes regularly in our premises. We also organize workshop on Yoga and Dance. We participate in cultural and allied activities on various occasions to promote people to people contacts.
