About University of Delhi

The University of Delhi was established in 1922 as a unitary, teaching and residential university by an act of the Central Legislative Assembly. The University which began life with three colleges and 750 students has now become India's largest institution of higher learning and among the largest in the world. Presently the university has 16 faculties and 86 departments spread over North and South campuses. It has 77 affiliated colleges and a few other recognized institutes with around 1, 50,000 regular students and more than 2, 50,000 students in non-formal stream. The President of India is the Visitor, the Vice President is the Chancellor and the Chief Justice of India is the Pro-Chancellor of the University.

The University of Delhi is a premier university of the country and is known for its high standards in teaching and research. It attracts eminent scholars to its faculty and has a rich academic tradition which has for decades attracted talented students who have made many important contributions to society. Students come here from different parts of the country and it also caters to the needs of many foreign students. Currently, students from over 68 different countries are studying in this university. These students have left the university richer in knowledge and understanding on completion of their studies. University of Delhi is conscious about its responsibility to the Nation at large as the students of today will shape its future of tomorrow. The university is dedicated to help its students in career and character building with sense of pride.

Recently, University of Delhi has come up with new and renovated infrastructural facilities including additional hostels, sports stadia, Wi - Fi networking, upgraded Class rooms, teaching laboratories and E-libraries. While various faculties, departments and university affiliated colleges are spread across the entire state, a computer network links them so that students and faculty can collaborate and draw upon the available resources of the university in an institutional way. The research facilities in different departments are of international standards. The university has signed many MOUs with different countries under International Exchange programs and Treaties. University of Delhi through its teaching and research leads the youth of the country and adds new dimensions to their personality.

University celebrates its foundation day on May 1 of each year. The first such function was held in 2012 and was presided over by Dr. Karan Singh(Padam Vibhushan) Member, Rajya Sabha. Recently, the university started a program in which students of different colleges particularly women, NCC and NSS students were sent on study tours through the Chartered trains “ Gyan Uday Express” across different important destinations in the country. The aim of this study tour was to empower the students with various facets of life including preparing reports after visiting these places. The train journey was fully supported by University itself. The University aims to continue such projects in future too. The University has started Innovation projects from different colleges involving multi-disciplinary subjects involving teachers and students of undergraduate courses to focus mainly on problems related to society and prepare project reports for further research/implementation. The University organizes annual cultural festival called ‘Antardhvani’, in which students from all colleges are encouraged to participate in cultural events and show - case their talent. NCC parade of cadets (from all wings) from different colleges is held every year during ‘Antardhvani’.

7. ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION

7.1 UNDER-GRADUATE COURSES

Evidence of required academic performance must be in the form of certified English transcripts listing all the courses with the grades or marks earned. Transcripts in languages other than English are not acceptable. Applicants for any of the Under-Graduate Course must have completed 12 years of formal schooling.

The minimum admission requirement in terms of the percentage of marks that are required by a candidate for being admitted to a course varies in many cases from year to year. The number of seats in the Science Courses is extremely limited. In view of the large number of applicants, admission will be through merit only.

7.2 POST-GRADUATE COURSES

For admission to a post-graduate programme of studies in any discipline, one must have completed 12 years of formal education at the School level followed by a Bachelor's Degree of at least 3 years duration. However, the admission to post-graduate courses is rather restricted and the applicant should have an excellent academic record to stand a fair chance for admission.

7.3 MPhil AND PhD COURSES

University of Delhi also offers MPhil and PhD Courses in its Departments/Faculties. The minimum admission requirement for the research degree (PhD) is a Master degree of Indian University or any other degree recognized as equivalent to it. The admission for these courses is very limited and is decided by the respective Departments/Faculties on the basis of a very sound academic record along with a detailed research proposal (Only in English).

8. AGE REQUIREMENT

There is no minimum age bar for admission to under-graduate courses and post graduates courses in the University and its colleges except in professional courses where regulatory body prescribes minimum age requirements (such as MCI, AICTE etc.)

9. Notification

Admission Schedule of Post-graduate and Under-graduate Course:

It is notified that the following schedule of admissions will be followed by all concerned for admissions to various Post-graduate and Under-graduate Courses for the academic year 2013-2014:

For Under-graduate Courses	No admission will be made by the Colleges after 31st July under any circumstances. It may be noted that the past practice followed till 2011-2012 of allowing late admissions with condonation of delay by the Vice-Chancellor has been discontinued w.e.f. academic year 2012-2013.
For Post-graduate Courses	All faculties(except for B.Ed. Course) will prepare their schedule of admission in such a manner that all admissions are finalized by 31st August 2013 and no admission will be allowed beyond this date under any circumstances.

10. EXPENSES

Tuition fees and other fees vary, but are usually between Rs.6,000-12,000 per annum. Room and board expenses in University and College residence range from Rs.3,000/-to 6,000/-per month. Total expenses covering tuition fees, boarding & lodging and incidental expenses approximately come to Rs.6000/-per month for students residing in Hostel and Rs.10,000/-per month in respect of students who are residing in private rented accommodation.

Every foreign student has to pay one time Foreign Students Registration Fee of Rs. 18,000/- for undergraduate including Certificate/Diploma courses, Rs. 24,000/- for Postgraduate courses and Rs. 30,000/- for courses leading to research work. In addition, every foreign student is required to pay Rs. 6,000/- per year in addition to the regular fee to the College/Department/Faculty in which he/she is admitted. Students (from other than SAARC countries) are required to pay an amount of Rs. 2,10,000 - per year in addition to the fees paid by the Indian students for courses like MIB, MHROD, and BSc (Hons) Computer Science.

11. HOSTELS

The University has a few Halls of Residence*. In addition nearly all Campus Colleges and some other Colleges have Hostels attached to them. The International Students House for men on the Campus provides accommodation to about 75 foreign men students and the International Students House for Women has provision for about 80 foreign women students. There are very few rooms to meet the demand, and as such more than half of the foreign students in the University are residing in private houses. In view of this, foreign students must reckon with the possibility of arranging own accommodation around campus.

*Dr.V.K.R.V. Rao Hostel, International Students House, Jubilee Hall, Gawyer Hall, Post-Graduate Men's Hostel, Mansarovar Hostel, University Hostel for Women, International Student's House for Women, North Eastern Students' House for Women, PG Women Hostel, Meghdoot Hostel, D.S. Kothari Hostel, Department of Education Hostel, Department of Social Work Hostel, Geetanjali Hostel (South Campus), and Saramati PG Men's Hostel (South Campus).

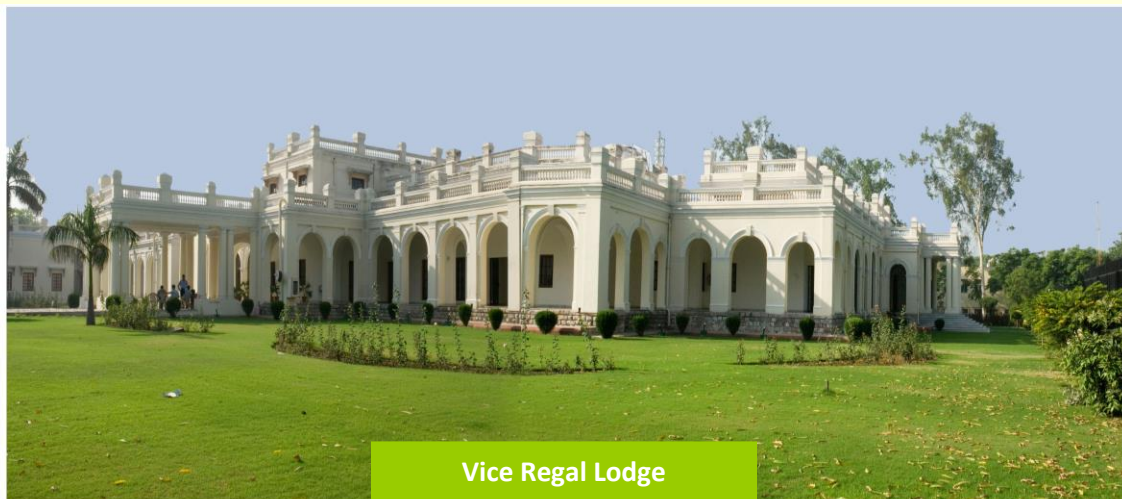

The following Colleges have Hostel Facilities:

1. Daulat Ram College for Women	8. Ramjas College (Women & Men)	12. S.G.T.B. Khalsa College (Women only)
2. Hansraj College	9. Shri Ram College of Commerce (Women & Men)	13. Maharaja Agrasen College (Women only)

12. FOREIGN STUDENTS REGISTRY (FSR)

Applicants seeking admission to courses of this University and have passed a recognized examination are advised to send their applications on the prescribed form (which can be downloaded from the University website www.du.ac.in) along with duplicate Photostat copies of the transcripts to Dr. Veena Mishra, Dy. Dean (Foreign Students), ROOM NO. 11, FIRST FLOOR, CONFERENCE CENTER, UNIVERSITY OF DELHI, DELHI – 110007 (E-mail: dydean_fs@du.ac.in) by the deadlines announced in January every year. If the candidate meets the eligibility requirements and is found eligible, University will issue provisional admission letter. A copy of this letter will be endorsed to the Indian Mission in the country of domicile of the candidate on the basis of which the concerned Mission will issue a Student's Visa so that the student can come to India and join the University. No foreign student will be admitted to this University without a valid Student's Visa. Such Student's Visa may be extended by the Ministry of Home Affairs after ascertaining that student pursuing his/her studies is receiving remittance through proper banking channels.

The admission of Foreign Students to Medical and Engineering courses is done by the Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India, New Delhi. A number of seats in these courses are reserved for the nationals of various countries. Foreign students desirous of joining these professional courses should contact the nearest Indian Mission for necessary information. They need not apply to University of Delhi directly.

13. SCHOLARSHIPS

The University of Delhi does not have any provision of scholarships for foreign students. However, some scholarships are granted by the Government of India under various schemes. Students are advised to contact the nearest Indian Mission for necessary information about these scholarships. Students may also consult the UNESCO handbook STUDY ABROAD which lists some scholarships and the addresses to which applications should be made directly.

14. EMPLOYMENT

Foreign students should not depend on obtaining work in India for covering their expenses while studying. In fact, to do part-time employment during the academic session is almost impossible. Students coming to India should have enough money to cover all the expenses of fee including boarding & lodging.

15. STUDENT LIFE

At present, from 70-80 different countries about 1500 foreign students are enrolled in the University. Indian students are generally friendly and informal and therefore foreign students do not face difficulty in adjusting with student community. Every college has counselors to guide and help the international students in case of any exigency.

An orientation programme 'ABHIVINYAS' is organized by 'FOREIGN STUDENTS REGISTRY' office for the newly admitted students in the month of August. In the annual cultural festival 'ANTARDHVANI' organized by the University, International students showcase their talent in the 'International plaza'.

16. W.U.S. HEALTH CENTRE

All the resident students in the University Campus are registered with the Health Center, which functions from 9:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M. without break to attend to all routine cases. For emergencies, the Main Health Center is open during night. The facilities at health center are adequate. The Center has also an Eye Clinic, Dental Clinic, E.N.T. Clinic and X-Ray Unit. Besides the Health Center in the Main Campus, some medical facilities are also available in South Campus.

17. CLIMATE AND CLOTHING

The University Campus is situated in the northern part of the Delhi city adjoining the ridge. Delhi is located 700 feet above the sea level. Delhi has extreme climate conditions. The temperature varies from 5⁰C during winters (November-February) and up to 45⁰C during summers (May- July). Students, therefore, require warm winter clothing as well as light summer clothing.

18. ASSISTANCE ON ARRIVAL

Before leaving for India, students may write to the Indian Council for Cultural Relations, Azad Bhawan, Indraprastha Estate, New Delhi-110002 (Telegraphic Address: CULTURE NEW DELHI-2) whose representatives will do their best to meet them on arrival. Students arriving by Air are advised to take the Airline Coach to the City Booking office of the Airline concerned from where the taxi fare to the University Campus is to about Rs. 600 (US $ 12). Students can also travel from International Airport to Inter-State Bus Terminal by bus Rs. 150 (US $ 3) and from there to DU Campus by taxi Rs. 300 (US $ 5). It is better to use public transport including metro which is economical.

19. UTILITY CENTER

Students should get Indian currency at the point of arrival to meet their immediate needs. There is a branch of State Bank of India in the University Campus, which transacts all normal banking business for the benefit of students and faculty members. SBI is located in the Utility Building near University Road in the North Campus. Another Bank (ICICI Bank) is also located in the same building. These banks have 24 hours ATM facility. Post Office and a Railway Reservation Counter are also functioning from the same building.
