

Latest Updates on Stay Permits during the New Normal

ITAS & ITAP

Holders Overseas (outside Indonesia)

Holders of expired ITAS/ITAP/MREP staying overseas (outside Indonesia), who have been granted a required letter from relevant agencies/boards, and those who apply for the family reunion ITAS/ITAP, shall return to Indonesia and immediately extend your Stay Permits at local immigration offices from 13 July 2020, within 60 days of the grace period.

If you do not extend your visa during the grace period, you shall apply for a new visa accordingly.

ITAS & ITAP

Holders in Indonesia

If you hold valid Stay Permits (ITK, ITAS, ITAP) residing in Indonesia, you can now apply to extend your Stay Permits at immigration offices.

ITK Holders

with an Emergency Stay Permit

Holders of Visitor Permits (2B21, 2B11, D212) who have been granted an Emergency Stay Permit can now extend your substantive permits unless the Covid-19 pandemic is declared over and there are available transports leaving Indonesia.

You can extend your substantive permits from 13 July 2020, within 30 days of grace period.

You can change your permits from Visitor Permits to Stay Permits.

If you do not comply with the provisions, you will be imposed on the Immigration Administrative Sanctions.

ITAS Holders with an Emergency Stay Permit

a. Holders of Temporary Stay Permits (ITAS) who have been granted an Emergency Stay Permit can now extend your substantive permits.

b. You can change your permits from Temporary Stay Permits to Permanent Stay Permits.

c. Holders of an Emergency Stay Permit, but your Temporary Stay Permit cannot be extended (No further extensions) shall leave Indonesia from 13 July 2020 and not exceed 30 days of grace period. If you do not comply with the provisions, you will be imposed on the Immigration Administrative Sanctions.

ITAP Holders with an Emergency Stay Permit

Holders of Permanent Stay Permits (ITAP) who have been granted an Emergency Stay Permit can now extend your substantive permits.

Holders of an Emergency Stay Permit, but your Permanent Stay Permit cannot be extended (No further extensions), shall leave Indonesia from 13 July 2020 and not exceed 30 days of grace period. If you do not comply with the provisions, you will be imposed on the Immigration Administrative Sanctions.

VOA Holders with an Emergency Stay Permit

Holders of Visa on Arrival (B213) who have been granted an Emergency Stay Permit can now extend your substantive permits.

You can extend your Visa on Arrival from 13 July 2020, within 30 days of grace period. If you do not comply with the provisions, you will be imposed on the Immigration Administrative Sanctions.

Free Visa Holders with an Emergency Stay Permit

Holders of Free Visa, who have been granted an Emergency Stay Permits shall leave Indonesia not exceeding 30 days, from 13 July 2020.

Otherwise, you will be imposed on the Immigration Administrative Sanctions.

Holders of ITK and ITAS with new visa telex

a. Holders of ITK or ITAS in Indonesia who have been granted a new visa telex can apply for your new ITK or ITAS at local immigration offices. You do not require to apply for an Indonesian visa at Indonesian Embassy or Consulates overseas.

b. You will be granted a new ITK or ITAS, after you make a payment for your new visa at local immigration offices.

c. Your payment receipt is your visa grant

These provisions come into force from 13 July 2020 until further notice.

Further information, click on www.imigrasi.go.id